PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

A warm and artful greetings to all!

Our February meeting was great and the program with Jon Leon was more than enlightening. It was good to see everyone again and I believe that everyone enjoyed the evening.

The Board of Trustees has been brainstorming all winter long, looking for new ideas to advance our club well into the future. We are open to any thoughts or ideas that would help in our efforts to help the Cincinnati Art Club grow. Let's turn our thoughts to spring and get outside.

After this long winter I know everyone is looking forward for some fresh air. I look forward to the future and great success for all!

Sincerely,
Thomas O' Bluemlein

NEXT DINNER MEETING: MARCH 18, 2011

PROGRAM

Tim Boone will present a PowerPoint presentation and a sampling of his tools of the trade along with some of his finished sculptures at the March 18th dinner meeting.

Inspired by the works of Bernini, perhaps the greatest Baroque sculptor, Boone is especially fond of figurative sculpture. His works meld emotion with motion, impacting viewer and surroundings alike.

The Crossing - Limestone

His sculpture to-date is a collection of limited edition cast stone pieces as well as "one-of-a-kind" original stone and Bronze sculptures. Tim states, "I never do more than fifteen like pieces and always vary patina to avoid a direct duplicate of a piece. I think this allows a collector to obtain a quality piece of art that they can be assured is unique to their collection".

For the artist himself, Tim Boone finds the most satisfying fulfillment in creating a work of art so moving that the admirer wants to own it and more importantly, to live with it.

"The grace of a curve, the force conveyed by angles, the subtleties of line draw me to sculpture". - Tim Boone
