PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We are in busy times! We covered an amazing amount of business at the last board meeting. Who could ever imagine what it takes to run our club. I know one thing is for sure, we have great talent on the board and I am humbled by their contributions.

Spring is in the air and I can't wait for the coming art season. Let's all keep our brushes wet and our hands in the art.

Sincerely,
Tom Bunny Bluemlein

CLUB IDENTITY AND NAME CHANGE

Cincinnati Art Club logo, name and branding change

For the first time in its 120+ year history, the Cincinnati Art Club has changed its logo, branding and its newsletter name.

Many of you may have noticed when driving by the Cincinnati Art Club as of late, that things have changed quite a bit. New fencing and construction of a new horse barn are well underway.

These changes were unanimously decided upon by your Board of Trustees last month. The adjacent lot and green space south of the Art Club building will be utilized as a new horse pasture and boarding stable for its Mt. Adams residences. This new equestrian direction will generate extra revenue for the club in addition to doubling CAC membership dues in order to help offset manure removal charges. All CAC members are welcome to sign up for boarding their horse(s) space permitting.

Please contact: Clyde S. Dale for more details. (513) 831-5873.

NEWS, EVENTS AND HAPPENINGS

April Fools!

Oh dear. . . . April Fools! There are no plans for horses, horse pastures, or even a horse barn, (needless to say manure removal) south of the building. So don't be fooled next year when you read about a new cattle barn being built south of the club. Again, April Fools, so beware!

Welcome!

It is with great pleasure that we welcome our newest CAC Associate members to the Club: Ron Baker, Marilee Klosterman and Janet Nickum. Everyone, please show them the CAC "secret handshake".

Farewell

It is sad news that Martine Khadr-Van Schoote (Signature Member) will be leaving the Cincinnati area. We wish her well, the best of success and we will miss her dearly.

NEXT DINNER MEETING: APRIL 15, 2011

PROGRAM

Brian Burt will be the presenter at the April 15th dinner meeting.

Brian's official study of painting began at Miami University in 1994. After graduating with a bachelors degree in 1998 he moved to Minneapolis with his future wife to be and began a three year apprenticeship at the atelier school of fine arts. For the next four years Brian focused primarily on pastels and began to carve out a niche for himself in this relatively young medium. Over the last year he slowly began to re-incorporate what he had learned in pastel back into his oil paintings. The very definitive genres that he paints. The first, still life, is usually tongue-in-cheek setups that lean towards the "trompe l'oeil" tradition. The second is landscape which, is still new to him, "it's a work in progress that I hope to push towards the styles of the Hudson River School and the Russian Itinerants". Brian's work has been featured in articles and on the cover of The Pastel Journal twice, the America Artist and Southwest Art magazines. Brian is currently showing in galleries in Cincinnati, Salt Lake City, and Philadelphia.
