PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Happy fall and welcome, welcome, welcome to all. . . to the start of the 2011-2012 Cincinnati Art Club season!

We have things off to a great start, the first dinner meeting and Signature Show started things off on the right foot this season. It was great seeing new works, old friends, fellow painters and the chisel wielding sculptors! Keep up the great job everyone!

The ViewPoint Show is next on the horizon, it's sure to be a great show if the past few ViewPoint shows are any indication of what to expect. Enjoy!

I highly recommend that you make every attempt to attend a sketch group session (held twice weekly) and/or a critique.

Sincerely,
Tom Bluemlein

HELPFUL HINTS

Electronic Dragonfly

For those of you who wish to receive the electronic version of the Dragonfly via Constant Contact or by visiting the Cincinnati Art Club's Web site (who wouldn't?), a great way to open the Dragonfly is to first save it to your computer. Don't open it directly from the Internet, save it to your computer first, and then open it. You will find that this is a lot quicker, will save time, and you won't have as many problems. Enjoy!

Be safe and be car smart

Just a reminder, please be aware of your surroundings and don't leave valuables in your car while attending a dinner meeting, sketch group, critique session, opening or any other event while at the club.

ViewPoint 2011

Mark your calendars, save the date and don't miss this year's ViewPoint Show. The opening is November 4th from 6:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m. The awards presentation will begin at 7:00 p.m. Mingle with family and friends, fellow artists and great artwork. This year's show will remain open to the public on Saturdays and Sundays for three weekends. Hours will be from 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

A NOTE FROM KAY

A 'Follow-up' report on the 2011 BUTTERFLY SHOW and SALE -
As you may know, the club has started up a relationship with the Krohn Conservatory in regard to their Annual Butterfly Show. Since they are in close proximity to our club, having a sale of butterfly art seemed like a perfect fit. We offered the Krohn a percentage (10%) of our sales from the show. In return the Krohn gave our exhibitors free tickets to their show and allowed us to do demos in their lobby to promote our exhibit.

In 2010, we were able to send them a check for $200. They were quite thrilled. This year, the check was for $100 and they were appreciative, none the less.

I'd like to thank the volunteers who helped with these shows; Donnita Geary, Noriko Fields, Ruth Zacharias, Dot Burdin, Carol Abbott, Judith Affatato, Judi Clubb, Les Miley and all the artists who brought paintings in to sell, as well as, the Director of the Krohn, Andrea Schepmann.

I'd like member feedback to hear your thoughts on doing another show this spring, in coordination with theirs. Contact: Kay Worz, eaglesrvce@aol.com or (513) 574-3180. Thanks, so much!
Kay Worz

GALLERY NOTE

A big thanks to Barb Trauth, who initiated a satellite exhibit space for our club members in Hyde Park, on the Square at the Michigan Terrace Condominium Lobby. Her hard work and all the club artists who participated made our club visible to a new clientele! We were allowed to exhibit there for free, until someone opted to rent that space. It was well worth the exposure and all who worked on this project, are to be commended.

BRIGHT IDEA

Low and behold. . . "Let there be light". Yes, it's true! After many years of "being in the dark". . . . the Cincinnati Art Club display box is once again glowing with pride!

Have no fear, there are no switches! The display box has had a new addition made to it. . . a photocell sensor which will illuminate the box once the sun goes down and the light will automatically turn off when the sun comes up, reducing electric costs for the club. Both sconces outside have also been equipped with photocells as well, so have a show and enjoy your name in lights!.

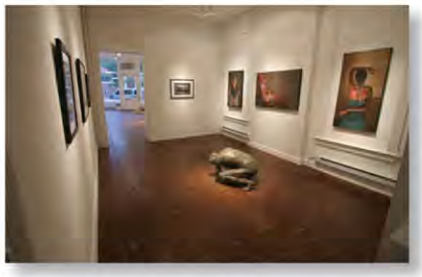
NEXT DINNER MEETING: OCTOBER 21, 2011

PROGRAM

A speaker from the Manifest Gallery will be presenting a PowerPoint presentation at the October dinner meeting.

Manifest Gallery serves as a venue for the display and experience of insightful, thought provoking contemporary visual art made by local, national, and international artists, including students and professionals. Manifest Drawing Center promotes, features, and explores drawing as a rich and culturally significant art form through the pursuit of creative scholarly activities. Manifest Press documents the organization's activities through carefully designed publications and has the goal to make the organization's projects accessible for public availability everywhere, including outside its own geographical radius.



Manifest Gallery

Students and professors from Cincinnati area universities formed Manifest in 2004. Since January of 2005, Manifest Gallery has been free and open to the public five hours a day, five days a week, at its location in East Walnut Hills, presenting works by students and professionals from around the world.

DINNER MEETING RESERVATIONS

The cost of dinner is $15 per person. To make a reservation call Catering Chair Noella Trippetti at (513) 631-5084 or send e-mail to: dinner@cincinnatiartclub.com. Reservation deadline is 4:00 p.m. the Wednesday before the meeting, i.e., October 19th. Early reservations are very much appreciated. If you should need to cancel, do so before the Wednesday deadline.

Traditionally the Club requests payment at the door by CHECK only in order to facilitate getting people in quickly and having an accurate record of payment.

PERMANENT LIST

We will start from scratch a new Permanent List for the upcoming season, September 2011 through May 2012. Putting your name on the list means you will attend all eight dinner meetings so you don't have to call every month. If, however, you then cannot attend a dinner, call or e-mail before the Wednesday deadline to cancel so that you won't be charged the $15 cost.

"No Shows" from the monthly list and from the Permanent List can expect a bill to cover the dinners ordered for them.

DINNER MEETING MENU - October 21, 2011

- Oven Roasted Beef Burgundy over Parsley Butter Noodles
- Steamed Vegetable Medley
- Tossed Garden Salad
- Pecan Pie with Whipped Topping
